

The International Academy for Investigative Psychologists.
www.ia-ip.org

Investigative Psychology: Applications For Law Enforcement

18th July 2017. Birkbeck University (TBC), London.

Professor David Canter & Dr Donna Youngs outline how to apply Psychological techniques to policing and crime analysis.

Topics covered:

- Offending Styles: Rape, Robbery, Burglary
 - Profiling for suspect interviews
 - False Rape Allegations: key indicators
- Differentiated False from Genuine Media Appeals
 - Geographical profiling.

£110, lunch & refreshments included (Discounts available for IAIP members). Limited availability, early reservation is highly recommended. A certificate of attendance will be issued to each attendee.
Please note location is subject to revision.

For full schedule, module information or reservations contact Kathryn Hughes at ia-ip@hotmail.com
Further information available at www.ia-ip.org.

IAIP may change program or cancel without explanation. In the event of cancellation course fees will be refunded but IAIP will not be liable for any other costs. IAIP reserves right to refuse application to attend without explanation.

